

GET THE FACTS: Democratic Families are Driving Texas Public Charter School Enrollment

62%

of public charter school students attend a school in a State House district represented by a Democrat

64%

of public charter schools are in a State House district represented by a Democrat

80% of all 375,000+ public charter students are African American or Latino

80%

of all African American public charter students attend a school in a Democratic State House district

86%

of all Latino public charter students attend a school in a Democratic State House district of all Asian public charter students attend a school in a Democratic State House district

68%

Democratic Families Are Seeking More Public Charter Opportunities

Over 70% of Texas children on public charter waitlists are waitlisted at schools in Democratic State House districts

73%

Polling Makes Clear: Democratic Voters Believe in More Public School Options

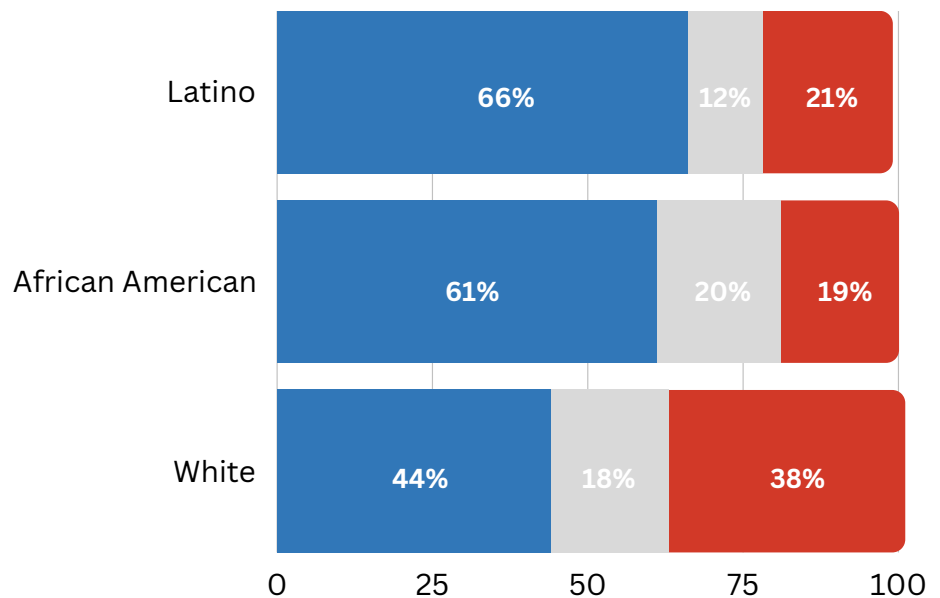

of African American Democratic primary voters support a proposal to "expand access to more choices and options within the public school system, including magnet schools, career academies, and public charter schools."

Benenson Strategy Group, 10/2019

Democratic primary voters have a favorable view of public charter schools

Benenson Strategy Group, 10/2019

“

"Charter schools play an important role in our country's education system"

Barack Obama, 44th President

"...many of the country's best public charter schools are opening doors to opportunity for disadvantaged students. That's why I have long been a strong supporter of public charter schools and an unflinching advocate for traditional public schools." Hillary Clinton, Former Secretary of State and US Senator from New York

"I believe that any child born in any zip code in America should have a high-quality school, and I don't care if that's a charter school or a traditional district school." Cory Booker, US Senator from New Jersey